VICKI SHROUT

Vicki Shrout is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shrout of Falcon. Her interests are horseback riding, baseball, and swimming. Vicki has no immediate plans for the future.

Tommy Roam is the son of Mr. Jerry Roam of Waynesville and Mrs. Joyce Fugitt of Plato. His interests include swimming, sports, music, and school. Tommy hopes to attend School of the Ozarks and major in Business Administration.

The 1977 Yearbook King and Queen were selected by Campus Photo as the most photogenic in the Plato High School class of 1978.

TOMMY ROAM

In Dedication

Linda Sue Needham
August 23, 1960 - January 13, 1977

and

John Raymond Gregory
October 13, 1959 - December 18, 1976

If you were here
I would say thank you
Thank you for
knowing me

If you were here
I would say thank you
Thank you for
understanding me

If you were here
I would say thank you
Thank you for
making me so happy

But since you are away
I'll just think of you softly
and thank you
in my dreams

—Susan Polis Schutz

In Loving Memory

Larry Dewayne Willhite
January 4, 1961 - August 27, 1977

Time Is

Too Slow for those who Wait,
Too Swift for those who Fear,
Too Long for those who Grieve,
Too Short for those who Rejoice;

But for those who Love,
Time is Eternity

A Time To Communicate

Speech And Language Arts

Public speaking and Forensics provide a means of self expression. They are taught by Mrs. Susan Biram. Language Arts, taught by David Ingalls and Roy Salsman, provide various appreciation courses as well as training in grammar and usage.

Three speech students went to contest from speech class and did very well. Susan Patterson placed first in public speaking with Arden Patterson and Sam Openshaw placing third in duet acting.

Deonna Cook and Joan McGuire preparing for a test in Mr. Salsman's Word Study class.

Marietta Cook and Joan McGuire grade English tests for Mr. Salsman.

Nancy Burnor, Jayne Huggins, Dawn Justice, and Barry Mortenson in Mr. Ingalls English I class.

Someone gets the evil eye from Mr. Salsman.

Drama

Dramatics, taught by Mrs. Susan Biram, provides creativity in expression. Drama students presented plays for the public in the fall and spring, in addition to a program of skits for the student body in February.

Kevin Manning, Nancy Cotrel, Mark Smalley, Richard Steenstra and Lynna Ruble in a scene from a Western Melodrama.

Mrs. Biram gives pointers while Tressa Green and Susan Shantz take Richard Steenstra off the stage.

Sonny Curtis in a scene from "Shut and Bar the Door."

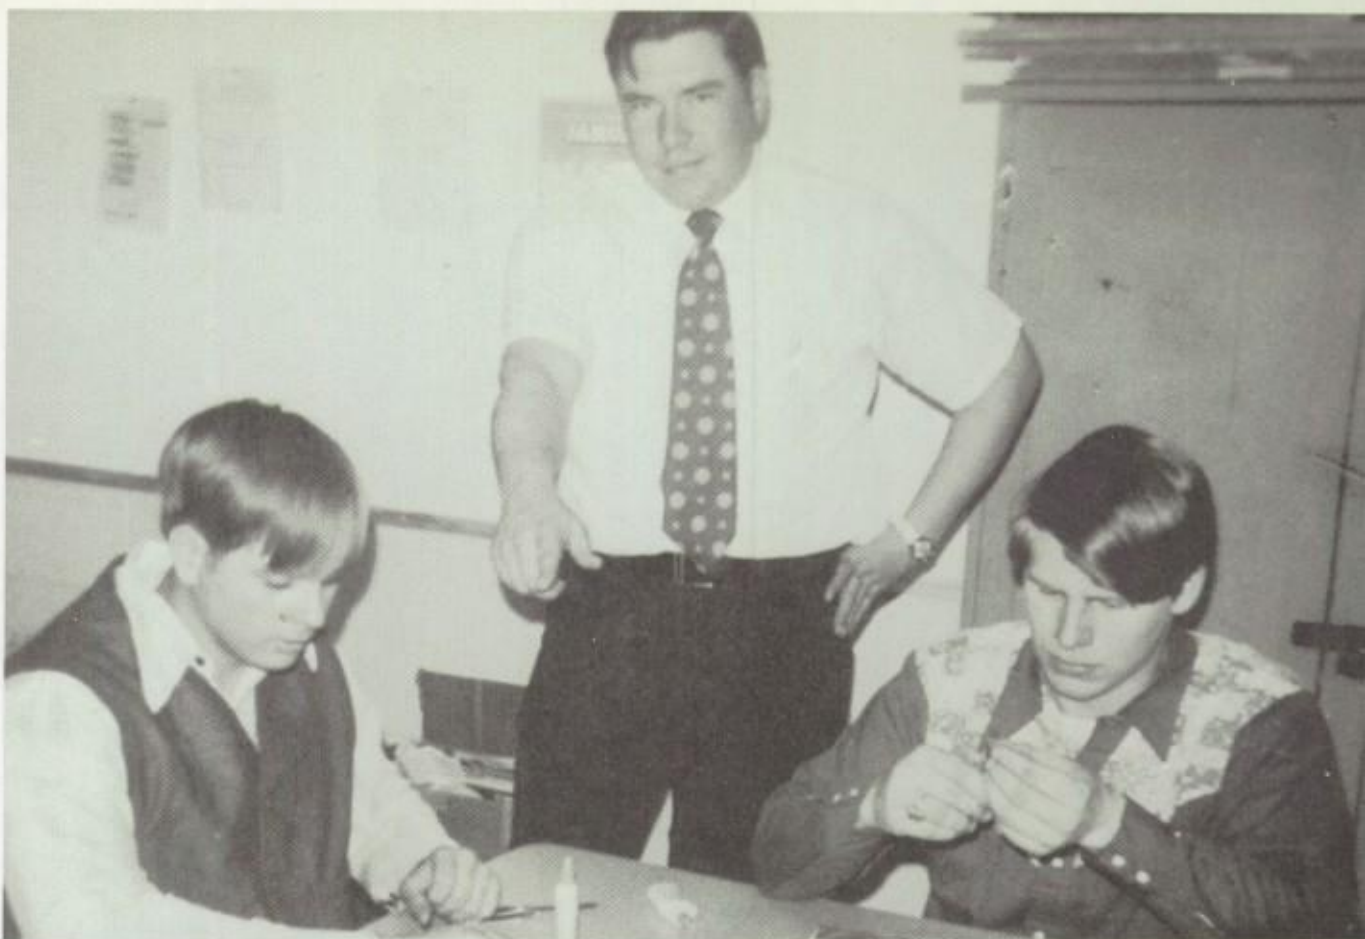

Kent McCune, Tressa Green and Ronnie Sharpensteen in "A Baby For Brandy."

"Nobody Sleeps" with Kathy Appleby, Deonna Cook, Beverly Blankenship, and Kevin Manning.

Art

A time to create . . .

Right: Mr. Brinkman advises Mark Lingo and John Jones on an art project; Below: Mr. Brinkman's art students prepare collages.

Spanish

Home Economics

Left: The married life class performs a wedding ceremony; Below left: Boy's contemporary living class models chef aprons and hats that they made; Below right: A display of Christmas Banquet decorations made by the Home Economics classes.

Industrial Arts

A time to learn skills . . .

Left: Steve Keller and Randy Sapp display a doghouse made by the general shop class; Right: Tom Berry and Steve Keller work on a cedar chest.

Science

A time for Experimenting

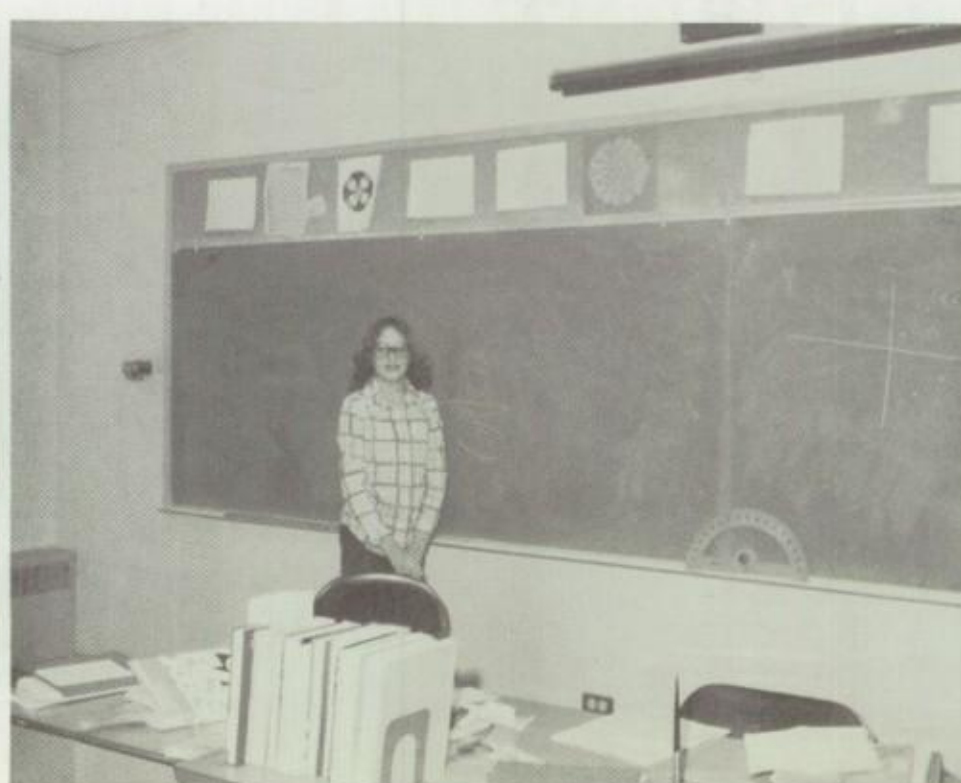

Right: Ken Moberly finds the mass of an object for physical science class. Below: left: Chemistry students Kevin Manning, Mary Rayborn, Susan Patterson, Arden Patterson, and Sam Openshaw find the diameter of a molecule. Below right: Biology students study textbooks prior to discussion Bill Reese and Karen Leuhrman teach science classes.

Math

A time to Reason

Left: Mr. Burnett hands papers to his 8th grade Math class. Right: Carolyn Robling solves a problem at the board. High school Math courses include: Algebra, geometry, general math, and trigonometry.

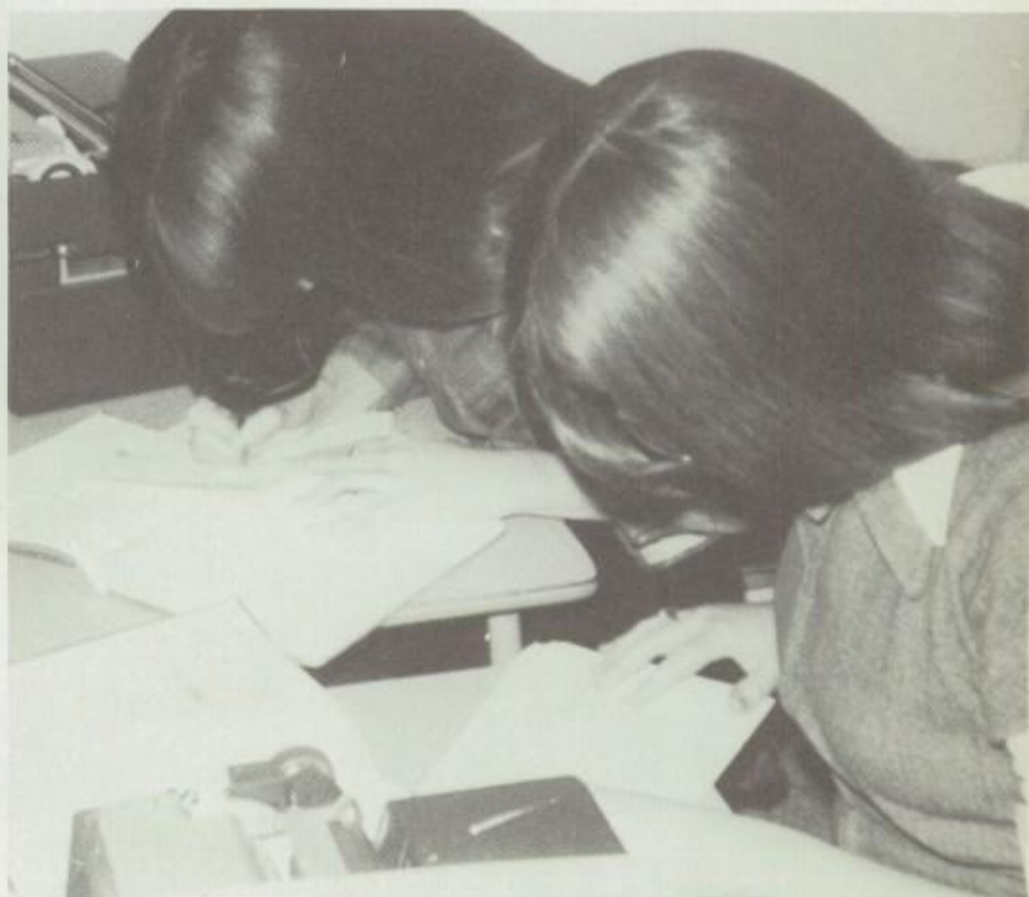

Business

A time to plan Vocations

Left: Sixth period typing class takes timed writing. Below, left: Secretarial Practice students Beverly Blankenship and Estella Collins work on their Serendipity practice sets. Right: Lynna Ruble and Nancy Cotrel write Shorthand lessons.

History

A time for the Past

International Relations students Kenny Vaughan, Mike Steenstra, Doug Corey, and Ralph Baker scan the newspaper for current world happenings. Mr. Gary Smith is the social studies teacher.

Drivers' Education

Mr. Robert Hill teaches Drivers' Education and Health. Right: The Drivers' Education car, a Ford Grenada, is "snowbound" due to the heavy snows of January and February 1978. This car, furnished by Licking Motor Company, of Licking, served two semester courses of Drivers' Education at Plato.

A time to prepare for life . . .

Health & First Aid

Left: Roger Davis, Troy Hall, Steve Keller, and Deanna Thomas demonstrate methods of bandaging, which they learned in First Aid Class. Below: Patty Vaughan bandages a "wound" for Kevin Manning.

Special Education

Speech Therapy

Doug Mansker and Tony Conley are two of the students in high school Special Education. Mrs. Virginia Springer is the teacher of this class.

Miss Donna Mulcahy is the Speech Therapist for Plato Schools. She is shown working with a student.

Guidance

Remedial Reading

Guidance services are offered in high school for help with problems concerning school and future job and college plans. Here, Arden Patterson looks into college possibilities.

Miss Patricia Davis is the Remedial Reading instructor. She works with students who have various problems with reading.

Waynesville Vocational Technical School
